RULES OF THE LAW SOCIETY

OF THE

North-West Territories

PASSED BY THE BENCHERS OF THE LAW SOCIETY OF THE NORTH-WEST TERRITORIES IN CONVOCATION, MARCH 4, 1901.

WITH SUBSEQUENT AMENDMENTS.

1. Any five Benchers shall be a quorum.
2. The Benchers of the Society shall meet in Convocation at such times and places in each year as the Benchers or in default the President of the Society shall appoint.
3. In default of a quorum after the lapse of thirty minutes beyond the hour of meeting, the President or Vice President or in their absence the Bencher being the senior Advocate present may adjourn the meeting to any other time and place.
4. The proceedings of the Benchers in Convocation shall be conducted as nearly as may be according to the ordinary Parliamentary mode.
5. No draft rule shall pass through more than two readings on the same day except by the unanimous consent of the Benchers present.
6. After any question is put, no further debate on the question shall be allowed, but the yeas and nays shall be recorded at the request of any Bencher.
7. The President or in his absence the Vice President for the time being shall preside in Convocation. In case of the absence of the President and Vice President a chairman shall be appointed by the Benchers present: he shall preside in Convocation and in all things officiate as President during the absence of the President and Vice President.

8. The President or Vice President may, if any unforeseen emergency renders it necessary, summon a special meeting of Convocation for any day by giving notice thereof by telegraph or otherwise.

9. A special meeting of Convocation shall be convened by the President if required to do so by at least three Benchers within thirty days of the receipt of such requisition, of which meeting at least fifteen days' notice shall be given to each Benchers.

10. No matter shall be brought before any special meeting unless specified in the notice, except by a unanimous vote of the Benchers present.

11. The order of business at meeting of Convocation shall be as follows:

1. Reading minutes of last meeting.
2. Communications.
3. Reports from the Secretary, Examiners or Committees.
4. Matters arising out of minutes.
5. Enquiries.
6. Petitions.
7. Motions of which previous notice has been given.
8. Notices of motion.
9. New business.

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS AT LAW.

12. No person shall be admitted as a student-at-law who is not of the full age of 16 years.

13. A graduate in Arts of Law or a recognised University in the United Kingdom or in Canada or a graduate of the Royal Military College of Canada shall be admitted upon complying with the rules of the Society as to notices, payment of fees and furnishing satisfactory evidence to Convocation of having received his Degree.

14. Any person over the age of 25 years who, during the three years immediately preceding his application for admission, has served continuously as clerk in the office of an advocate in the North-West Territories, and produces a recommendation signed by at least two advocates other than his employer, or any person who produces satisfactory evidence that he has been called to the Bar or admitted as an Advocate, Solicitor or Attorney of any Country or State other than England, Scotland and Ireland, or any Province of Canada, and is in good standing therein, may in the discretion of the Benchers, be Articled and entered on the books of the Society as a student-at-law without being required to undergo the preliminary examination for admission to study, provided, however that he pay the fee prescribed in such cases, and shall serve five years in addition to the time already served, and shall pass the intermediate and final examinations before being eligible for admission as an Advocate.

15. Any other candidate for admission as a student-at-law shall be required :

(1) To produce to the Examining Committee satisfactory evidence that he has passed matriculation examination required by some University empowered by law to grant the degree of Bachelor of Arts, in the United Kingdom or Canada, or satisfy Convocation that he possesses a scholarship equivalent thereto; or—(as amended Dec., 1902).

(2) To produce a certificate from the Department of Education that he has passed a satisfactory examination in the subjects prescribed for Standard VII, Latin being one of the subjects of the examination, or—(as amended Oct. 1902).

(3) Shows that he is the holder of a first or second class non-professional teacher's certificate granted by the Department of Education, and produces a further certificate that he has passed a satisfactory examination in the Latin prescribed in the preceding sub-section—(as amended, Oct. and Dec. 1902).

16. Rule 15 shall apply only to students-at-law whose articles were entered into on or after September ~~15~~¹⁹, A.D. 1898.

17. Upon any applicant for admission as student-at-law presenting to the Secretary a certificate that he has passed the examination required by Rule 15, accompanied by a testimonial of good character in form No. 1 and upon payment of the necessary fees, the Secretary with the written approval of any two Benchers may admit the applicant as student-at-law and grant him a certificate in form No. 2 of the schedule hereto to that effect.

18. An original duplicate contract of service of any student-at-law and of every assignment thereof, with an affidavit of the due execution thereof shall be filed with the Secretary within one month thereafter or such further time as Convocation under special circumstances may allow.

19. Every affidavit of the execution of Articles must state the exact date of execution by each of the parties.

20. The terms of service for students-at-law shall be effectual only from the time of admission to the Society, or from the date of Articles, whichever date is the latest.

INTERMEDIATE AND FINAL EXAMINATIONS.

21. All examinations shall be by written or printed questions to be answered in writing.

22. The intermediate and final examinations shall be held during the months of March and September in each year at such place or places as the Examiner or Examining Committee may appoint.

23. In the event of the Examiner being unable to attend or declining to act at any examination and in the event of Convocation not meeting and appointing another Examiner, the Examining Committee shall appoint an Examiner to fill his place for the next ensuing examinations.

24. The Examining Committee in concert with the Examiner is hereby entrusted with the power and duty of superintending the examination of all candidates for examination and of arranging and settling the details thereof, in all respects not provided for by these rules.

25. The Secretary or Examining Committee shall report on the qualification of each Applicant for examination and shall send to the Examiner a list of those entitled to be examined and the Examiner shall not examine any candidate except he receives such instructions from the Secretary or Examining Committee.

26. At the termination of each examination, the Examiner shall deliver to the Secretary his report in writing, giving the result of the examination of each candidate.

27. In the computation of time entitling students-at-law to pass examinations to be enrolled as Advocates, examinations shall be construed as passed at the actual date of the examination.

28. Every student at law shall be required to pass two examinations before the final examination for enrollment as Advocate: such examination may be passed at the end of the second and third years respectively after he has been entered on the books of the Society, but students-at-law who are graduates of a recognised university or of the Royal Military College, shall be required to pass only the second intermediate examination, which may be passed at any time after the expiration of the first year of their term of three years.

29. Every candidate for an intermediate examination shall give notice to the Secretary of his intention to present himself for examination on or before the 15th day of month immediately prior to the month fixed for such examination. The notice shall be in the form No. 3 in the schedule hereto, and shall be accompanied by the sum of Ten Dollars.

30. A period of at least 11 months shall elapse between each intermediate examination, and between the last of such intermediate examinations and the final examination for enrollment as an Advocate.

32. The above curriculum should only apply to students-at-law admitted on or after the 15th September, 1898.

ADMISSION AND ENROLLMENT AS AN ADVOCATE.

33. No student-at-law entered on the books of the Society shall be enrolled as an Advocate unless he be of the full age of twenty-one years.

34. Every candidate for enrollment as an Advocate shall deliver a written notice in the form No. 3 in the schedule hereto to the Secretary on or before the 15th day of the month prior to the month fixed for the examination at which he intends to present himself, and such notice shall be accompanied by a fee of Ten Dollars.

35. Accompanying the notice mentioned in the last preceding section, every candidate for enrollment shall send in to the Secretary a petition for such enrollment in the form No. 4 set forth in the schedule hereto; affidavit of the candidate verifying the answers to the several questions set forth in the form No. 5 in the schedule hereto; an affidavit verifying the answers set forth in the form No. 6 in the schedule hereto, made by the Advocate or Advocates with whom such student-at-law has served his clerkship, which service shall be to the satisfaction of the Benchers and shall have been in the place where such principal or his duly qualified partner, resided and actually practiced his profession, together with the certificate in the last mentioned form set forth; the Treasurer's receipt for the fee payable for such examination, and an affidavit of the candidate in the form No. 7 in the schedule hereto.

35a. Any student-at-law who may desire during a portion of his term to pursue his studies outside the Territories, shall give written notice to the Secretary of the Society of such desire, which notice shall state at what place and during what portion of his term he wishes to pursue his studies outside the Territories, the name of the Barrister or Solicitor with whom, or the Law School at which he proposes to study and every such student shall in addition thereto file with the Secretary of the Society the written consent of the Advocate to whom he is Articled permitting such student to pursue his studies during such portion of his term outside the Territories.

On receipt of such notice and consent the Secretary shall lay the application before the Benchers who may give permission to the student to pursue his studies for the time mentioned in such permission with such Barrister or Solicitor, or in such Law School as may be stated in such permission, and the period so spent with such Barrister or Solicitor, or in such Law School, shall be considered as part of the period of five years or three years term of study required by Ordinance, provided however, that before such student shall be called or admitted as hereinafter provided he shall obtain from such Barrister or Solicitor, or from the proper officer of such Law School answers to such questions in Form No. 6 in the schedule hereto as may be applicable to his case, or in some Form conforming as nearly as possible thereto and duly verified.

36. In case the term of service of any candidate has not expired on or before the date of giving the notice mentioned in Rule 34 he shall be at liberty to file further answers and affidavits by himself and the Advocate or Advocates with whom he completed his term of service.

37. In case any such candidate proves to the satisfaction of the Examining Committee that it has not been in his power to procure the answers to the questions contained in the Form No. 6 in the schedule hereto from any Advocate with whom he may have served any part of his time under Articles, or the affidavit of service therein also contained, the Committee may deal with the matter as in their discretion they may see fit.

38. No candidate for any examination who shall have omitted to pay his fees or to leave the required papers with the Secretary, at or before the several times by these Rules required, shall be examined or admitted.

39. Every enrolled Advocate upon his first appearance before the Court, shall appear in proper professional costume and shall be presented to the Court by the senior member of the Bar present.

40. The form of diploma of an Advocate shall be in the form No. 9 in the schedule hereto.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS AND ATTORNEYS FROM ENGLAND,
SCOTLAND OR IRELAND OR ANY OF THE PROVINCES OF THE DOMINION.

41. Every Barrister, Solicitor, Attorney or Advocate from England, Scotland or Ireland or from any of the Provinces of the Dominion of Canada desiring to be enrolled must give to the Secretary one month's notice of application in the form No. 8 in the schedule hereto accompanied by a fee of ten dollars, and the papers and the fees required by the Rules of the Society. Provided that any ex-Judge of the Supreme Court of the North-West Territories on application to the Secretary may be enrolled as an Advocate of the North-West Territories without payment of any fee or production of any papers—(as amended Dec. 1902).

42. Every such Barrister, Solicitor, Attorney or Advocate must, with his notice of application produce his diploma or certificate of his call to the Bar, or a certificate of his admission as a Solicitor or Attorney, as the case may be, in the country or province where he has been so called or admitted; a testimonial of good character and conduct; a statutory declaration made by himself that he is now in good standing on the roll of Barristers, Solicitors, Attorneys or Advocates in such country or province and that so far as he is aware no application is pending at the time of his making such declaration, to strike him off the rolls, and the Treasurer's receipt for the fees payable. Provided that the provisions hereof shall not apply to any ex-Judge of the North-West Territories—(as amended Dec. 1901).

43. Every student-at-law shall pay the following fees:

On every notice of application for admission as student-at-law	$ 5 00
For admission as a student-at-law	50 00
For enrollment as an Advocate	150 00

44. Every Barrister, Solicitor, Attorney or Advocate applying for enrollment under the provisions of Rule 41 shall pay the same fee as a Barrister, Solicitor, Attorney or Advocate of any other country or Province is required to pay on presenting himself for call to the Bar in the country or province of such applicant provided that in no case shall such fee be less than $400.00—(as amended July 4th, 1903).

COMMITTEES.

45. The following standing committees shall be elected at the first Convocation following the election and shall hold office until the appointment of their successors:

1. Finance, Library and Discipline.
2. Examining and Legislation.
3. Reporting and Printing.

46. Each standing committee shall consist of not more than three nor less than two members in addition to the President and the Secretary who shall be ex-officio members of all standing committees.

47. Any vacancy in any committee shall be filled up by the Benchers immediately after the occurrence of such vacancy.

48. The officers of the Society shall be a President, Vice-President, Treasurer and Secretary who shall hold office during one year or until their successors shall be appointed.

(a) In addition to these officers there shall be elected :—One Examiner and an Editor who shall hold office during the pleasure of Convocation and shall perform all such duties as may be assigned to them respectively by the Rules of the Society, or by the standing orders, or by any special orders of Convocation, or of any standing committee thereof, and shall be paid such remuneration as Convocation shall fix.

(b) Examinations shall be conducted as follows :—The Examiner shall prepare five sets of papers containing ten questions each for every examination to be held. Such papers shall be enclosed in a sealed envelope and placed by personal delivery or registered mail in the hands of such presiding examiners as the Examining Committee may from time to time direct. The presiding examiner shall preside at the examination of all candidates presenting themselves for examination in his locality. No examinations shall extend over four days, and not more than two hours shall be allowed for any one paper. At the close of the examination the presiding examiner shall place the answers of the candidates in a sealed envelope and return them to the examiner either by personal delivery or registered mail.

(c) It shall be the duty of the Editor to determine what decisions ought to be published, to peruse and settle the reports thereof prepared by the Reporters, and to superintend the preparation and publication of such decisions. He shall also make such arrangements with the Judges and Officers of the Courts that a report of all important decisions may be secured and he shall oversee the whole work of reporting, so as to secure its efficient and prompt execution.

49. The Reporting Committee shall appoint such reporters as they deem necessary.

50. The reporters shall, under the direction of the Editor, prepare a report of each important case, including the arguments of Counsel, the authorities cited and the judgment (whether oral or written), and shall furnish the same without delay to the Editor.

51. The Treasurer shall lay before each Convocation a full statement of the accounts for the preceding fiscal year, accompanied by vouchers.

52. The fiscal year shall extend from the 1st day of January until the 31st day of December in each year.

53. Such accounts shall be audited by an Auditor appointed for that purpose.

54. The funds of the Society shall be deposited by the Treasurer in such chartered Bank as the Finance Committee shall direct.

55. The Finance Committee shall be charged with the management of the finances of the Society, and all matters relating to its resources and expenditure and may appropriate from time to time such sums as may be required for expenditure and direct payment thereof.

56. In addition to the duties required of the Secretary by Ordinance and these rules, he shall keep the minutes of the proceedings of Convocation, conduct all necessary correspondence, prepare all necessary diplomas, certificates and other documents appertaining to his office, and perform such other duties as may be imposed upon him by Convocation.

57. Every practising Advocate shall take out an annual certificate according to form No. 10 to practice as hereinafter provided. The annual fee payable for such certificate shall be $15.00, and such fee shall be payable on or before the 15th day of January in each year, provided that if the annual certificate be not taken out on or before the date above mentioned, the fee payable shall be $22.50, and provided further, that Advocates admitted after the first day of July of any year shall be charged $10.00 only as their annual fee for that year (as amended July 4th, 1903).

58. In the event of any advocate ceasing to practice and not taking out his annual certificate he shall be entitled to resume practice upon filing with the Secretary a Statutory Declaration showing the period during which he has not been practising, upon payment of $5.00 for each year during which he has not been practising and upon his taking out his annual certificate for the current year; and in the event of any such non-practising Advocate paying annually $5.00 he shall be entitled to remain on the roll and be entitled to vote for election of Benchers, but shall not be eligible to be elected a Benchers nor to receive the Society's publications.

59. The Secretary shall on or before the 24th day of December in each year notify in writing all Advocates in good standing on the roll, of the time when the ensuing annual fees are due.

60. No Advocate shall be permitted to practice who is in default in taking out his annual certificate.

61. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to notify every practising Advocate who may be in default in taking out his annual certificate, that unless the same be taken out within one month after the mailing of such notice proceedings will be taken by the Secretary to prevent such person from practising.

62. Any practising Advocate remaining in default after the expiration of such month shall be again notified of such default by the Secretary, and if such default be not remedied within thirty days of the mailing of such notice last mentioned, the Advocate shall ipso facto stand suspended from practice.

63. If such default be not remedied as provided by the next preceding rule it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Society to report the facts to the Discipline Committee, who, through the Secretary, shall notify such Advocate that proceedings will be taken against him in pursuance of Section 39 of The Legal Profession Ordinance. Provided always that any person so suspended or struck off the roll for non-payment of fees or failure to take out such certificate, shall be entitled to be reinstated on the roll by paying the Treasurer of the Society the fees for the current year; all dues to the Society for which such person may have been in arrears at the time of such suspension, or striking off the roll, as well as an amount equal to the annual payments which he would have been required to pay to the Society during such period of suspension, had he not been so suspended, together with any costs incurred in that behalf.

64. All petitions for relief presented to Convocation shall be verified by Statutory Declaration.

65. The Society shall have a common seal which shall be in the custody of the Secretary for the time being.

66. Except as otherwise provided, all certificates, diplomas and other instruments, executed on behalf of the Society, shall be signed by the President and countersigned by the Secretary, who shall affix the seal thereto.

67. In case of emergency any of these rules may be suspended by unanimous vote of the Benchers present.

68. Local Libraries may from time to time be established by the Benchers at such point or points in the different Judicial Districts as may be deemed expedient.

Whenever any such library is established it shall be kept either in the Court House in the town where such libraries are or in some other room to be approved of by the Benchers for the District and furnished free of charge to the Society by the Local Bar.

All books constituting such library shall be under the charge and supervision of the Benchers for the District.

All such libraries shall be insured and kept insured for their full insurable value in the name of the Society.

69. Any matter requiring immediate attention shall be communicated by the Secretary to the Benchers, or to each member of the Committee as the circumstances may require, and the written authority of the majority of the Benchers or the members of any Committee shall have the same force and effect as a resolution passed at Convocation or at a meeting of the Committee.

70. Any Benchers attending Convocation at any place other than his place of residence, shall be paid by the Treasurer his actual travelling expenses at a per diem allowance of $4.00 for every day's necessary absence from his place of residence.

71. These rules shall come into force on the first day of May, 1901.

LAW SOCIETY OF THE NORTH-WEST TERRITORIES.

Amendments to the Rules of the Law Society of the North-West Territories Passed by the Benchers in Convocation at Calgary on the 10th Day of January, A.D. 1905.

- [1.] Rule 14 is hereby amended by striking out the word "direction" in the tenth line thereof and substituting therefor the word "discretion."
- [2.] Rule 16 is hereby amended by striking out the figures "15" where they secondly occur therein and substituting therefor the figures "19."
- [3.] Rule 28 is hereby amended by inserting after the words "student at law" where they occur in the first line thereof the words "articled after September 19, 1898."
- [4.] Rule 32 is hereby amended by striking out the word "should" where it occurs therein and substituting the word "shall" therefor; and by striking out the figures "15th" where they occur therein and substituting the figures "19" therefor.
- [5.] Rule 35 is hereby amended by striking out the words "accompanying the notice mentioned in the last preceding section" and by substituting for the word "for" where it first occurs therein the word "before."
- [6.] Rule 36 is hereby repealed.
- [7.] Rules 41, 42, 42A, 42B, 44, 44A, 44B and 44C are hereby struck out and the following substituted therefor:

41. Any barrister, solicitor, advocate or attorney who has been duly called to the bar, admitted or enrolled, as the case may be, in England, Scotland, or Ireland, including a writer to the signet in Scotland or in any Province or Territory of the Dominion of Canada or in any other British Colony may be enrolled as an advocate of the North-West Territories upon passing a satisfactory examination in the Statutes of Canada, the Ordinances of the North-West Territories and the practice of the courts therein, and upon complying with the provisions of the following rules:

Provided that if it be proved by a certificate of the proper officer, or by a statutory declaration of some person cognizant of the fact, that advocates of the North-West Territories are admitted to practice in the courts of the country, province or territory where such applicant has been so called, admitted or enrolled without passing an examination, then such applicant shall not be required to pass an examination as hereinbefore provided.

42. Any such applicant required by Rule 41 to pass an examination before enrollment may write at any regular examination of the Society, provided that he shall have filed with the secretary on or before the fifteenth day of the month immediately preceding the month fixed for such examination a notice in form number 3a in the schedule hereto, and shall have paid the fee required by Rule 29.

42A. Every such applicant shall, except as hereinbefore provided, file with the secretary before enrollment as an advocate:

- (a) An application for enrollment in form number 8 in the schedule hereto;
- (b) A testimonial of good character and conduct;
- (c) A statutory declaration of himself that he is at the time of making such declaration in good standing on the roll of barristers, solicitors, advocates or attorneys, as the case may be, of the country, province or territory where he has been so called, admitted or enrolled, and that, so far as he is aware, no application is then pending to strike him off such roll:

(d) His certificate of call to the bar, diploma or certificate of admission, as the case may be.

44. Every such applicant shall upon filing his application, pay a fee of ten dollars:

Provided that such application shall lapse and the fee be forfeited if the enrollment of such applicant be not completed within six months from the date of filing such notice.

2. Every such applicant shall, upon his enrollment, pay a fee of ~~four~~ hundred dollars.

note
44A. The secretary shall, upon receipt of the documents mentioned in Rule 42A, transmit the same to a benchet residing in the judicial district in which such applicant is residing, and such applicant shall not be enrolled as an advocate until his application has been reported on by such benchet and approved by the examining committee or the chairman thereof.

Provided that where such applicant is not, at the time of making such application, residing in the North-West Territories, such application may be sent to any benchet for report.

44B. Any ex-judge of the Supreme Court of the North-West Territories may, on application to the secretary, be enrolled as an advocate of the North-West Territories without payment of any fee or production of any papers.

2. The Attorney General or Solicitor General, while occupying such position, shall be entitled to practise in the courts of the North-West Territories and be entitled to all the privileges of an advocate of such Territories without enrollment or payment of any fee provided such Attorney General or Solicitor General is a member of the bar of any province or territory of Canada which would permit an advocate of the North-West Territories while occupying such position to practise in such province or territory under similar conditions.

44c. If an application for enrollment is received from any person being a legal practitioner of a foreign country, such application shall stand until convocation next assembles, when such application may be considered by convocation and may be granted upon such terms as convocation shall deem proper.

[8.] Rule 43 is hereby amended by striking out the figures "150.00" where they occur therein and substituting the figures "100.00" therefor.

[9.] Rules 57, 58, 59, 60, 61 and 62 are hereby struck out and the following substituted therefor:

57. Every advocate shall, ipso facto, stand suspended from practising his profession within the North-West Territories unless and until he shall have taken out an annual certificate of good standing in form number 10 in the schedule hereto.

58. The fee for such certificate shall be fifteen dollars, and shall be payable on or before the fifteenth day of January in each year.

Provided, that if such certificate be not taken out on or before the date above mentioned the fee payable therefor shall be twenty dollars.

Provided, further, that if such certificate be not taken out on or before the fifteenth day of February in any year, the fee payable therefor shall be twenty-five dollars.

Provided, that advocates enrolled as such after the fifteenth day of January and before the first day of July in any year shall pay fifteen dollars only for their annual certificate for that year.

Provided further, that advocates enrolled as such after the first day of July in any year shall pay ten dollars only for their annual certificates for that year.

59. The secretary shall, on or before the twenty-fourth day of December in each year send by mail to every advocate in good standing on the roll a written notice in form number 11 in the schedule hereto.

60. The secretary shall, as soon as may be after the fifteenth day of January in each year, send by mail to every advocate who may then be in default in taking out an annual certificate, a written notice in form number 12 in the schedule hereto:

2. The secretary shall, at the expiration of thirty days after the mailing of such last mentioned notice, send by mail to every such advocate still remaining in default as aforesaid a written notice in form number 13 in the schedule hereto:

3. If such default be not remedied within thirty days after the mailing of such last mentioned notice, the secretary shall strike such advocate off the roll, and shall forthwith notify such advocate and each of the judges of the Supreme Court of the North-West Territories of the fact.

61. No advocate shall be struck off the roll under the provisions of rule 60 who shall have filed with the secretary a statutory declaration that he has not been engaged during the current year in the actual practice of his profession within the North-West Territories.

62. In the event of any advocate in good standing ceasing to practise and not taking out his annual certificate, he shall be entitled to resume practice upon filing with the secretary a statutory declaration showing the period during which he has not been practising, upon payment of five dollars for each year during which he has not been practising, and upon taking out his annual certificate for the current year; and in the event of any such non-practising advocate paying annually five dollars, he shall be entitled to vote for election of benchers, but shall not be eligible to be elected a bencher or to receive the society's publications.

- [10.] Rule 63 is amended by striking out the words "shall be entitled to" and substituting therefor the words "may on resolution of the benchers;" and by adding thereto the words "together with any costs and expenses incurred by the society in connection with any successful proceedings against such advocate."
- [11.] Rule 64 is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:
 " 64. All statements of fact contained in any petition to convocation shall be verified by statutory declaration."
- [12.] Form number 2 in the schedule to the said rules is hereby amended by striking out the words "I hereby certify that " where they first occur therein.
- [13.] Form number 3 in the schedule to the said rules is hereby amended by striking out the words "on the day of " where they occur in the third paragraph and by substituting the words "in the month of ".
- [14.] The schedule to the said rules is amended by inserting between form number 3 and form number 4 the following:
